A copy of the order has been produced by the learned counsel representing the petitioner. She submits that she has filed the additional documents alongwith a miscellaneous application, which has not been listed. She submits that the respondent-Institution has tried to frustrate her visit by rejecting the prayer at the fag end and therefore the action of the respondents is mala fide.

4. This Court has considered the submissions made by the learned counsel representing the parties. At this stage, it will not be appropriate to make any observations. An order has been passed by respondent University while refusing to give any no objection certificate. The petitioner, if so advised, may seek remedy against the aforesaid order.

5. With these observations, the petition is disposed of.

6. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
