CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GAURANG KANTH

GAURANG KANTH, J. (ORAL)

The hearing has been conducted through hybrid mode (physical and virtual hearing).

1. The petitioner/management in the present batch of present writ petitions are assailing the communications dated 11.10.2022, issued by the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central), Delhi to the District Collection Officer/ Collector, SDM (Karol Bagh) for the recovery of the amount as mentioned therein.

2. The respondent/workman filed the Labour Condition Applications (LCA) under Section 33-C(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 before the Presiding Officer, Central Government Industrial Tribunal Cum Labour Court No.1, Rouse Avenue Court Complex. In pursuance to the said LCAs, learned tribunal passed an ex-parte order(s) dated 11.04.2022, the learned tribunal allowed the said LCAs filed by the respondent/workman and directed the amount claimed by the respondent/workman to be paid within 90 days to them and in case the said amount is not paid within the period of 90 days from the date of the order, the petitioner/management shall also be liable to pay interest. Being aggrieved by the said order(s)/communications, the petitioner preferred the present writ petitions.

FACTS RELEVANT FOR DISPOSAL OF THE PRESENT CASE

3. Since all the petition raise similar grounds, the facts mentioned in the WP (C) No. 15903/2022 are referred to in the present judgment.

4. The dispute between the petitioner management/IARI and the daily rated workman of IARI was referred to Industrial Tribunal-cum- Labour Court, Dwarka, Delhi vide letter No. L-4201/14/2014/IR (DU) dated 12.03.2014 under clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2A) of the Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 for adjudication of an industrial dispute, terms of which are as under:-

“Whether non payment of 1/30th of Pay at the minimum of relevant pay-scale +DA to the workman Shri Ram Manohar Mehto and others in the tune of instructions of F.No.24 (6)/99-CPN dated 16.12.1988 and non regularization of their services till date are just, fair and legal ? It no, what relief the workmen concerned are entitled to?”

5. The learned Tribunal vide award dated 08.08.2018 answered the references in affirmative and, inter alia, held as under:-

“Having regard to the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, this Tribunal is of the considered view that the workmen/claimants are entitled to get 1/30th of pay at the minimum of relevant pay-scale + DA in terms of instructions bearing F.No. 24(6)/99-CPN dated 16.12.201988 and they are also entitled to be regularized in terms of the DOPT's memo dated 11/2/2006. The award is passed accordingly."

6. The respondent/workman filed LCA No. 1501/2019 under Section 33-C(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act before the learned Tribunal for seeking pay and allowances w.e.f. their initial date of appointment as daily paid labourer in IARI on the basis of Award dated 08.08.2018 alongwith interest. The learned tribunal vide ex-parte order dated 11.04.2022 had allowed the said LCAs whereby it has been directed that the amount claimed by the respondent/workman shall be paid to them within 90 days of the order and in case, the said amount is not paid within 90 days from the date of the order, the petitioner/management shall also be liable to pay interest. Being aggrieved the present petition has been filed.

ARGUMENTS BY LEARNED COUNSEL FOR THE PETITIONER.

7. Learned counsel for the appellant contented that post-pandemic, the physical hearing of the court proceedings were just resuming and hence, there was a lot of confusion regarding the listing of matters before various forums. The petitioner/management wrote various letters to the Registry of the learned Tribunal enquiring about the listing of the said matters. However, no intimation was given to them by the Registry of learned Tribunal

8. Being unaware of the listing of the matters, petitioner/management could not appear before the learned Tribunal on 11.04.2022 and the learned Tribunal passed the ex-parte order dated 11.04.2022. The petitioner/management filed recalling application's before the learned Tribunal and the respondent/workman had filed their respective response to the said applications.

9. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in view of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in M/s Haryana Suraj Malting Ltd. versus Phool Chand reported as 2018 (18) SCC 567, the learned Tribunal has the power to recall ex-parte award/order(s).

10. Learned counsel further submits that the recalling applications were pending consideration before the learned Tribunal, however, without any application of mind, the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central), Delhi had issued the impugned communications dated 11.10.2022 alongwith requisition form to the District Collection Officer/ Collector, SDM, Karol Bagh for recovery of the amount due to the workman/respondent in terms of the order dated 11.04.2022. Being aggrieved by the said communications dated 11.10.2022, the petitioner has filed the present writ petitions.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

10. Notice had been issued in these matters and the court has stayed the recovery proceedings initiated in terms of the order dated 11.04.2022 in various LCAs.

11. This court has examined the matter in details. The recalling applications filed by the petitioner is pending consideration before the learned Tribunal and it is stated that the same is listed for hearing on 24.03.2023. The communications dated 11.10.2022 have emanated from the order dated 11.04.2022 and since the applications for recalling the said order are itself pending before the Regional Labour Commissioner, the communication dated 11.10.2022 ought not to have been issued by the Regional Labour Commissioner. In view of the same, the communications dated 11.10.2022 issued in pursuance of the order dated 11.04.2022 is hereby set aside.

12. The parties are directed to present their respective cases before the learned Labour Commissioner on the date fixed. Though, no Counter affidavits have been filed by the respondents, but learned counsel for the respondents have stated that they have no objection if the present writ petitions are disposed of with direction to learned Labour Commissioner to decide the pending recalling applications expeditiously.

13. This court without expressing any opinion on the merit of the matter is of the view that there is no purpose in keeping the present writ petitions pending. Labour Commissioner is directed to decide the pending application as expeditiously as possible.

14. With these observations, the present writ petitions are allowed.

15. All pending applications are disposed of.

16. No orders as to costs.
