23. The perusal of all the FIRs and the facts as mentioned herein above indicate that all the FIRs were an outcome of a matrimonial dispute and now the parties have settled the dispute.
24. Learned APP for the State has opposed the quashing of FIR No. 390/2019 under Section 308 IPC registered at PS Ghazipur, Delhi on the ground that offence is serious in nature and thus cannot be quashed.
25. However it is a settled proposition that while entertaining a petition for quashing, the court can also examine whether the offence under Section 308 IPC is made out or not. As being stated by the IO the shooters were not found and Mr. Ravinder Gupta was named by injured.
26. IO has duly identified the parties.
27. The High Court is the highest court of the State and is conferred with the power of control and superintendence over all courts subordinate to it. Besides Articles 226 and 227, Section 482 Cr.P.C. also acknowledges the inherent power of the high court to secure the ends of justice. In cases where the offences are not compoundable in nature, the parties on account of an amicable settlement invoke the inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing the proceedings on the plea that continuance thereof would merely be an abuse of process of law.

28. It has been repeatedly held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and this court that when the chances of an ultimate conviction are bleak and, therefore, no useful purpose is likely to be served by allowing a criminal prosecution to continue, the court may while taking into consideration the special facts of a case quash the proceedings.
29. This court considers that there would be no purpose of continuing with the trial as the parties have reached on a settlement and have decided to give quietus to the proceedings.
30. Taking into account the totality of facts and circumstances, the case FIR No. 0229/2019 dated 30.04.2019 registered under Sections 308/341/506/34 IPC at PS Kalyan Puri, Delhi; FIR No. 0606/2018 dated 19.11.2018 registered under sections 498A/406/34 IPC at PS Ashok Nagar, New Delhi ; FIR No. 0309/2018 dated 22.09.2018 registered under Sections 323/354/506/509 IPC at PS Madhu Vihar, Delhi and FIR No. 0390/2019 dated 19.11.2019 registered under Section 308 IPC at PS Ghazipur, Delhi and all the proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.
31. The Present petitions are disposed of.
