Due to these incidents both of them filed cross-FIRs against each other.
3. After the investigation, the charge sheet in case FIR No. 101/2021 was filed under Section 307/34 IPC. However, it is submitted that now both the parties have reached on a settlement and two MoU in the respective cases have been placed on record.

It has been repeatedly held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and this court that when the chances of an ultimate conviction are bleak and, therefore, no useful purpose is likely to be served by allowing a criminal prosecution to continue, and where the court may be of the opinion that a settlement between the parties would lead to better relations between them, the court may exercise power under section 482 CrPC for quashing the proceedings or the complaint or the FIR as the case may be.
8. I consider that there would be no purpose of continuing with the proceedings. The parties have amicable settled the matter. In view of
