4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the parties are neighbours to each other and have amicably resolved all their disputes with the help and intervention of well-wishers and common friends. vide settlement deed dated 17.08.2023 on the following terms and conditions:

“1. That Party at First Part and Party at Second Part earlier neighbors residing at Sangam Vihar, New Delhi,

2. That Party at First Part and Party at Second Part have some disputes arose and accordingly both have lodged the complaints against each other which was registered as FIR No.421/2022 (308/34 IPC) and 422 2032 (323/354/34 IPC) PS Sangam Vihar respectively.

3. That after intervention of mutual friends and respectable persons of society Party at First Part and Party at Second Part amicably resolved their issues with each other.

4. That by making this Memorandum of Settlement without any coercion or threat party at First Part and Party at Second Part are giving their mutual consent at free will without any coercion or threat or undue advantage that both parties have no objection if both the FIRs be quashed by Hon'ble High Court.

5. That party at First Part filed the Writ Petition (Crl)

6. That both the parties will not in any way interfere in the lives of each other nor shall try to defame each other in any manner whatsoever.

8. This is true and correct statement of both parties.”

5. All the parties are present in court and have duly been identified by the IO and submit that they have entered the settlement voluntarily without any fear, force or coercion.
6. Since the dispute is predominantly private in nature and the parties have settled all the disputes amicably, the chances of conviction would also be bleak and remote. Given that the parties do not wish to pursue the present complaints on account of the settlement. I do not see any reason to reject the settlement. Furthermore, it is also a matter of debate that whether Section 308 IPC will actually be attributed or not in view of the nature of injuries.
7. It has been repeatedly held by the Hon’ble Supreme Court and this court that merely because the FIR is registered under Section 308 IPC, it would not debar the court from quashing the FIR. The court has to look at the nature of injuries and all the attendant circumstances. Reliance may be placed upon Yashpal Chaudhrani and Others vs.

State (Govt. of NCT Delhi) and Another, 2019 SCC OnLine Del 8179; Gian Singh v. State of Punjab, (2012) 10 SCC 303.

8. Taking into account the totality of facts and circumstances, the case FIR No. 421/2022 under Sections 308/34 IPC and FIR No. 420/2022 under Sections 323/341/354/34 IPC, both registered at PS Sangam Vihar, and all proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.
9. The present petitions stand disposed of.
