3. The petitioner/defendant seeks a direction that the learned Trial Court dispose of the suit expeditiously.
4. Ms. Rambha Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner/derfendant submits that though the suit is listed for recording of evidence of PW1, however, the respondent/plaintiff for one reason or the other has been filed frivolous application which is delaying the disposal of the suit itself.

5. Ms.Rambha Singh, seeks simple direction that the learned Trial Court dispose of the suit expeditiously.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner/defendant also submits that the suit is pending for the last 13 years and was filed in the year 2010 and till date, only part cross-examination of PW1 has taken place. She further submits that the petitioner/defendant has always been ready to cross-examine the witnesses of the respondent/plaintiff including PW1. However, on one pretext or the other, the respondent/plaintiff is delaying the disposal.

8. In view of the aforesaid submissions and keeping in view that the suit is pending since the year 2010, the learned Trial Court is requested to expeditiously dispose of the suit in view of the long pendency of the suit.

9. In view of the aforesaid, petition stands disposed of with no order as to costs.
