HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS MAHAJAN

JUDGMENT

SANJEEV SACHDEVA, J. (ORAL)

1. Appellant impugns order dated 30.05.2018 whereby an interim maintenance was fixed for the appellant. We had interacted with the parties and their child aged 16 years in chamber on 12.04.2013 thereafter, further interaction was held with the parties on 20.04.2013 and today in court.

2. The respondent is a cancer survivor, however, requires special diet and care from time to time. It is also not in dispute that at times when respondent requires care, appellant had come forward and provided him the requisite care in the hospital and even at her own house.

3. The son with whom we had interacted also wanted to reside with the respondent as a family.

4. Parties have settled their disputes and agreed as follows:-

(i) Both the parties have agreed to bury the hatchet and have agreed to reside together along with their son as a family at Property no. 4/30, First Floor, West Patel Nagar, New Delhi, which is the property owned by the respondent.

(ii) The appellant who is present in person submits that she shall take full care of the respondent and also take care of his special needs and special diet and also provide full emotional support, love and affection towards him.

(iii) The respondent undertakes that he shall bear the entire household expenditure of the family of approximately Rs. 50,000/- per month and in addition pay to the appellant a sum of Rs.15,000/- per month as her pocket money.

(iv) He further assures that he shall take care of the entire educational and other expense of their son Astik Arora.

(v) Respondent states that he is the owner of the following properties:-

(a) Shop no.2 in building bearing No.6/79, W.E.A Padam Singh Road, Karol Bagh, New Delhi-110005.
