CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

2 21-02-2024 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of her arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 365, 366(A) of the IPC.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and is a women and being mother of Adarsh Kumar came to be implicated in the instant case by the informant who alleges that his minor daughter had gone to attend the call of nature, but when she did not come back a search was made and it transpired that she used to talk to one boy namely Adarsh Kumar, as such based on suspicion it was alleged that Adarsh Kumar and his mother kidnapped the minor daughter of the informant for the purposes of marriage. It is next submitted that daughter of the informant and son of the petitioner were knowing each other but then neither the informant nor the petitioner were aware of the said relationship, but since petitioner is mother of Adarsh, as such based on suspicion she was also implicated in the instant case.

4. The learned APP opposes the anticipatory bail application.

5. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner above-named, in the event of her arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, is directed to be released on bail on his furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Court below where the case is pending in connection with Baniyapur P.S. Case No.301 of 2023, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

6. The application stands allowed.
