ORAL ORDER

2      22-02-2024                      Heard the parties.

2. The petitioner is apprehending arrest in connection with Dulhin Bazar P.S. Case No. 230 of 2021 instituted under Sections 324/307 of the Indian Penal Code lodged on 20.11.2021 by the informant, Sudai Thakur.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant has alleged that he is having a store in the market. On the day, his son who was to appear in the examination had come to the place when this petitioner came, purchased some item and thereafter, left the place without paying the cost. Upon demand of payment, he took out a knife and pierced in the abdomen of the victim. Accordingly, the FIR.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though there has been allegation, from the injury report, it does not seem that the same is grievous in nature.

5. Considering the kind of allegation that has come against the petitioner that he went to the shop, purchased the item, without paying it tried to leave the place, the son who was to attend his examination demanded money whereafter he was injured by the knife blow of the petitioner. In that background, so far as the anticipatory bail is concerned, the petitioner does not deserve the same.

6. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application stands dismissed.
