registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302, 201, 120(B) read with Section 34 of IPC and under Section 27 of the

3. The main submissions advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner are that the petitioner is a young unknown persons and the name of the petitioner came into light on the basis of confessional statement of accused namely, Rajnish Kumar, but the said accused disclosed the name of other Sonu Kumar, son of Sanjeet Singh while the name of petitioner's father is Sanjay Kumar and in this regard, operative portion of order impugned may be perused. Further submissions are that there is no eye-witness of the alleged crime and petitioner is a student of B.A. Part II and he has been dragged in this case merely on the ground of electronic evidence but during investigation, no material has come against him except the confessional statement of co-accused and suspicion and the police failed to recover any incriminating material from his possession after he was taken into custody.
