2. The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in a case registered in connection with Bhore PS Case No.

467, 468 and 471 IPC.

3. The learned senior counsel for the petitioner

submits that the Branch Manager of the Bank, Dharmendra

It is next submitted that the petitioner was working as an Assistant in the bank and he also came to be implicated in the instant case along with Dharmendra Kumar Singh with an allegation that an amount of Rs. 34,35,274/- of the customers was defalcated by the accused persons. It is further submitted that the petitioner would not abscond rather would co-operate in the investigation.

4. Learned A.P.P. and the learned counsel appearing for the Bank opposed the anticipatory bail application.

5. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner, above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, is directed to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gopalganj in connection with Bhore PS Case No. 175/2023, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

6. However, it is made clear that in the event if the Investigating Officer of the case files an application before the learned Trial Court bringing to its notice that petitioner despite giving assurance to this Court is not co-operating in the investigation, in that event the learned Trial Court shall be at liberty to forthwith cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner.

7. It is further made clear that in the event if the police after investigation submits the charge sheet connecting the petitioner with the offence, in that event the present anticipatory bail order shall lose its effect.
