CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

5 12-02-2024 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for the informant and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioners seek bail in anticipation of their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302, 201, 120B and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and have been falsely implicated in the present case being Sarhu and brother in law (sala) of the deceased.

4. Learned A.P.P. opposes the bail application and submits that the wife of the deceased was having illicit relationship with the petitioner no.1, who is brother in-law (Jija) of the wife of the deceased. It is further submitted that during the course of investigation, the wife of the deceased was arrested and she in her confessional statement disclosed the name of the petitioners, who have been involved in the occurrence. It is thus submitted that since the wife of the deceased has taken the name of the petitioners, who are her Jija and brother, as such, the petitioners are not entitled for the privilege of anticipatory bail.

5. Considering the submissions made by the learned Additional P. P., the Court is not inclined to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners stand rejected.
