2. This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Manpur PS case no. 112 of 2023, disclosing offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 354B, 448, 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.
3. The prosecution story, as per the First Information

petitioner entered into the house of the informant through the roof of the house and misbehaved with his daughter-in-law. When the informant protested and raised alarm, Bharat Kumar arrived there causing head injury. Co-accused Prithivi Chauhan and Birendra Chauhan assaulted Mukesh Kumar.

4. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner along with family members have falsely been implicated in this case due to dispute regarding storm water drainage. Learned counsel further submits that petitioner is 19 years old and is a student having no criminal antecedent. He next submits that both parties are close door neighbours and entire family members including father and brothers of the petitioner have been made accused.

5. Regard being had to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration the fact that both parties are close door neighbours having dispute regarding drainage, I am inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. This application is, accordingly, allowed.

7. Let petitioner, abovenamed, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within four weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned C.J.M.
