registered for the offences punishable under Sections 25(1-b)a and 35 of the Arms Act.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and is a young boy aged about 22 years and if he is sent to judicial custody in the

with hardened criminals which will further restrict his future prospect.
4. The informant alleges that a video went viral on social media wherein a boy was seen carrying a gun with a woman, accordingly, the police reached the place of occurrence where the woman was apprehended who disclosed that the boy in picture is her step brother and her neighbour disturbs her mother-in-law for which she had called her step brother and got him captured on video with a gun and send the same to her neighbour who used to disturb her mother-in-law. It is next submitted that based on the confessional statement of Komal, the step sister of the petitioner, the petitioner came to be implicated.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner next submits that no doubt the video went viral but then the gun in question was a toy gun as the police had even raided the house of the petitioner, but then no gun was found from his house. It is also submitted that it is not a case of misuse of arm though for the purposes of threatening those who used to torture the mother-in-law of Komal, the video was made, but then the gun was not real. It is next submitted that the petitioner will not abscond rather will co-operate in the investigation.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner.
