2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Hussainganj
P.S. Case No. 213 of 2023 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 342, 323, 307, 386, 504, 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code pending in the Court of learned A.C.J.M.-IX,

3. The prosecution case, in short, is that the

Ravi Ranjan was coming back from Siwan Railway Station to relieve some relatives at station and while he arrived at Renua Pul some people caught hold to the informant's son and all the named co-accused were assaulted the informant's son which was disclosed by the victim to his father.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. The allegation levelled against the petitioner is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. He submits that due to previous enmity the petitioner and other co-accused persons have been made accused in the present case. The petitioner has three criminal antecedents as mentioned in para-3 of this application.

5. Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail and submits that the petitioner is also involved in the present case.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of case, nature of the offence and criminal antecedents of the petitioner, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. The prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is hereby rejected.

7. However, if the petitioner surrenders before the learned Court below within six weeks from today and seek regular bail, the learned Court below would pass order on the same day in accordance with law without being prejudiced by this order.
