3. As per the prosecution story, the informant and other police officials were on patrolling and when reached near Rajouli got information from Senior Official which followed raiding of a place and seizure of tractor with illegal sand. As the police tried to take over, it was resisted by the local villagers in which police force also suffered injury. They tried to hit the police force but they saved themselves. It has been further incorporated that one motorcycle which was left by the accused persons was seized which followed the FIR.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he is local villager, do not have criminal antecedent, neither he is

Further, the submission is that without accepting the allegation and/or the outcome of the present petition, the petitioner (s) on its own would like to contribute Rs. 2000/- to the Chief Minister's Relief Fund.

5. Learned APP for the State, on the other hand, opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail stating that he tried to stop the police force from doing their duty.

6. Taking into account the submissions put forward by the learned counsel for the parties as also that he is neither owner of the tractor or the motorcycle, do not have criminal antecedent, FIR lodged and will have to face the trial, this Court is inclined to extend him privilege of anticipatory bail subject to payment of Rs. 2000/-, as stated above.

7. Case No. 563 of 2023, subject to condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

(i) one of the bailor should be the family member of the petitioner who shall provide official document to show his bona fide;

(iii) the petitioner shall appear before the concerned police station every fortnight for next six months to mark attendance;

(iv) the petitioner shall in no way try to induce or promise or threat the witnesses or tamper with the evidences, failing which the State shall be at liberty to take steps for cancellation of the bail bonds;
