CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

4 16-07-2024 Heard learned counsels for the parties.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a complaint case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per prosecution case, even after executing agreement with regard to management of marriage hall of the complainant, this petitioner didn't pay the amount to the complainant.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner that from bare perusal of the complaint petition it is apparent that the dispute between the parties is with respect to breach of agreement, for which the complainant has got alternative remedies. It is further submitted that none of the acts allegedly committed by this petitioner gave rise to any criminal liability. Only with a view to settle the civil dispute, this false case has been lodged by giving a cloak of criminal offence.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State and learned counsel for the complainant/Opposite Party No. 2 have vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances and nature of dispute between the parties, the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner is allowed.

7. Accordingly, in the event of arrest/surrender within a period of six weeks from today, let the above named petitioner be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned First Class Judicial Magistrate (Court No. 4), Danapur (Patna), in connection with Complaint Case No. 373(C) of 2021, subject to condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
