learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 302, 201, 120 (B) of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per prosecution case, the son of the informant namely, Sujeet Kumar is alleged to have been murdered by unknown miscreant and was hanged on a mango tree. After seeing mobile of the deceased, he was continuously talking to two mobile numbers. Thereafter, it is alleged that the owner of the mobile Nos. might killed the son of the informant.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. The petitioner is not named in the FIR rather and the name of petitioner sprang up in this case on the basis of his self confessional statement. Petitioner is remanded in this case from Ghorasahan P.S. Case No. 68 of 2023. The petitioner has no concern with the mobile numbers in question. There is no eye witness of the alleged offence. Moreover, the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 22.09.2023. Similarly situated co-accused Munna Kumar has already been granted bail vide order dated 19.09.2023, passed in Cr. Misc. No. 51946 of 2023.

5. Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as custody period, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Ghorasahan (Jitna) P.S. Case No. 116 of 2023 on furnishing bail bond of

Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional
