CORAM: HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA

ORAL ORDER

2 18-04-2024 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2 The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Section 392 of the Indian Penal Code.

3 Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the instant case of loot by the Investigating Officer based on confessional statement of apprehended accused in police custody as the informant alleges that while he was returning home after selling sweets, he was intercepted by unknown accused persons who looted cash of Rs 17,000/- along with other articles as detailed in the FIR. The learned counsel further submits that FIR was against three unknown accused and the name of the petitioner transpired in the confessional statement of apprehended accused in police custody which does not have any evidentiary value.

4 The learned APP has opposed the anticipatory bail and submits that the petitioner, in the instant anticipatory bail application, has not even disclosed about his profession which amply suggests that he is indulging in such type of offence and the investigation of the case is still going on.

5 Considering the submission made by the learned APP for the State, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the present anticipatory bail application is rejected.
