ORAL ORDER

5 19-09-2024 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned APP for the State.

2. In this case, the petitioner is seeking regular bail in connection with Mali P.S. Case No. 6 of 2024, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 363, 366(A) of the IPC.

3. As per allegation, the daughter of the informant went to market but she did not return. The informant started searching for his daughter and came to know that the petitioner, with the help of other co-accused persons, kidnapped his daughter, with an intention to marry her.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. The victim has rendered her statement under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. under pressure of her parents. As per medical report, the age of the victim is 14-16 years. The petitioner is a person of clean antecedent and is under custody since 29.02.2024.

5. On the other hand, the learned APP for the State Sri J.N. Thakur and the learned counsel for the informant have opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that the victim is admittedly minor. The petitioner subjected her to penetrative sexual assaults, after kidnapping her and the trial is going on.

6. Considering the above-mentioned facts and circumstances, the petition is rejected with the observation that the learned court below is directed to conclude the trial within a period of nine months, failing which the petitioner may renew his prayer for bail.
