3      20-08-2024                      1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 149, 341, 342, 323, 427, 307, 353, 332, 333, 504 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has antecedent of one case.

4. The informant alleges that during course of patrolling an information was received that miscreants are creating nuisance at the house of Saroj Sahani, accordingly, the informant along with police force and Chawkidar reached the place of occurrence and saw that 30-40 miscreants variously armed were creating nuisance at the door of Saroj Sahani and his house was locked from inside. Further, the informant tried to pacify the miscreants when they started abusing and scuffling with the police force. Further, the miscreants also broke the mobile of the informant and even damaged the police vehicle and the miscreants including the petitioner was identified by the Chawkidar.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has been falsely implicated in the instant case. It is further submitted that no doubt a commotion has occurred at the house of Saroj Sahani and since petitioner lives nearby the house of Saroj Sahnai as such he also went to the place of occurrence and thus came to be implicated. It is next submitted that no specific allegation is alleged against the petitioner rather specific allegation of assaulting the police force by brick is against Sonu Singh.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

7. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, let the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/-
