ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date : 06-05-2024

The petitioner is aggrieved with the dismissal of an appeal on the ground of delay. The appellate order is produced as Anneuxre-P/1. The petitioner relies on a notification issued by the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs, Ministry of Finance, Government of India. The notification provided for delayed appeals to be filed from orders prior to 31.03.2023. The notification itself came on 02.11.2023.

2. We found in CWJC No. 7388 of 2024 (Bijay Kumar Yadav Vs. The State of Bihar & Ors.) that there is no rationale for fixing the cut-off date as 31.03.2023 when the notification itself came on 02.11.2023. In the present case also the order challenged in appeal was on 12.04.2023. An appeal could have been filed on or before 12.07.2023 or with one month delay, before 12.08.2023. When the notification came the appeal was delayed.

3. In such circumstances, any order which was prior to 02.11.2023 the date on which the notification came and was delayed as on that date could be entertained as a validly filed appeal.

4. On the above reasoning, we set aside the appellate order which dismissed the appeal on grounds of delay. The appeal shall stand restored to the files of the appellate authority and the same shall be considered on merits after hearing the petitioner/assessee.

5. The writ petition stands allowed.
