(iii) And further for grant any other appropriate order (S) as your lordships may deems fit and proper to the facts and circumstances of this case."

3. Learned Counsel for the State raised preliminary objection and submits that the present writ petition has now become infructuous due to the reason that some other persons who were aggrieved had come before this Hon'ble Court by filing CWJC No. 1739 of 2019 in which vide judgment dated 31.01.2019, it was directed by this Hon'ble Court to complete the process of selection within a period of eight weeks. Counsel further submits that in compliance of order passed by this Court, a fresh appointment in ward No. 8 took place and newly appointed person had joined.

4. In view of the aforesaid background, the present writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous but liberty is hereby granted to the petitioner that if cause of action still revives for him, he may challenge the said appointment before the appropriate authority in accordance with law.
