ORAL ORDER

2      16-05-2024                      Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P for the State.

2. The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in connection with Raniganj P.S. Case No. 390 of 2023 dated 390 of 2023 registered for the offences punishable u/ss 307 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of the Explosive Substance Act.

3. As per the prosecution case, the informant's son along with other children of village had gone to bank of canal to bring firewood then they saw something in an old plastic bag near babul tree, in course of collecting firewood, there was explosion in bag and five children including the informant's son sustained injuries. Thereafter, the injured was taken to the hospital for treatment. It is further alleged that dacoity was held in the house of one Rinku Nayak 15 to 16 days ago and articles of Rinku Nayak were also found near place of occurrence. It is alleged that the miscreants threw the bomb in bush near canal in course of fleeing away.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. The petitioner is not named in the F.I.R. The name of the petitioner has sprung up in the confessional statement of the co-accused, Manoj Sah. Nothing has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. No T.I.P. has been conducted by the prosecution. The petitioner has one criminal antecedent as stated in para 3 of the bail petition. The petitioner is in custody since 07.12.2023.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as the period of custody, the petitioner above-named, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Court concerned, Araria in connection with Raniganj P.S. Case No.

390 of 2023.

7. The application stands allowed.
