ORAL ORDER

2 17-05-2024

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of anticipatory bail apprehending his arrest in connection with Samastipur Town P.S. Case no. 121 of 2023 registered under sections 420, 467, 468, 419 and 120B of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per the prosecution case, the allegations against the thirty accused persons including the petitioner herein are that they are all said to be the customers of the bank in question. It is stated that they entered into conspiracy with the so called valuer of the bank and by depositing spurious gold obtained gold loan.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case. The allegation of the petitioner depositing spurious gold is false and incorrect. Without admitting her guilt, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the outstanding amount of loan as would be evident from the records of the case as on date was Rs.5,45,721/-. The petitioner is ready to deposit the same in four equal monthly installments starting with 1.6.2024. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

5. The application for bail is opposed by learned A.P.P for the State. Learned counsel for the Axis Bank on instructions submits that in case the outstanding amount is paid by the petitioner as per the time fixed by this Court, the bank may not oppose the prayer for bail. Further, it is submitted that liberty may be granted to the Bank to make an application for cancellation of bail granted to the petitioner in case the deposits are not made in the scheduled time.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the nature of allegation against the petitioner, the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties and the undertaking of the petitioner that she would deposit the total outstanding amount in four equal monthly installments, it is directed that the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, be released on anticipatory bail in connection with Samastipur Town P.S. Case no. 121 of 2023 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Samastipur.

7. In case, the petitioner defaults in deposit of any of the installments ie the monthly installments not having been deposited by the 15th of that particular month, the bank will have the liberty to move for cancellation of bail of the petitioner.
