CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RUDRA PRAKASH MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

2 16-05-2024 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The petitioner is apprehending her arrest in connection with Amnour P.S. Case No. 207 of 2023 instituted for the offences under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The allegation against the petitioner along with others is of brutally assaulted the informant and his family members due to which they sustained injury. It is further alleged that due to assault the father-in-law of the informant succumbed to injury.

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. The petitioner has nothing to do with the said occurrence and has no criminal antecedent. The occurrence took place on account of petty dispute. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that petitioner had no intention to kill the father-in-law of the informant.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the petitioner and submitted that petitioner is named in the FIR and specific allegation of assault upon the father-in-law of the informant is against her, due to which he succumbed to injury. Hence, the petitioner does not deserve anticipatory bail.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that specific allegation of assault is against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. The prayer is rejected.

8. However, if the petitioner surrenders and prays for regular bail, the same shall be considered by the Court below on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order of rejection.
