2. The present writ petition has been filed for the following reliefs:

(i) For quashing of order dated 27.03.2019 passed in Case No. Appeal/424/2017 and other analogous case, so far as it relates to the petitioner and also for quashing the order dated 18.12.2012 (Memo No. 399) passed by the District Teacher Employment Appellate Authority, West Champaran in the Case No. 19 of 2012 to the extent the same relates to the present petitioner and direct the authorities to select the petitioner on the post of Panchayat teacher in Gram Panchayat Barwa Semraghat, Block-Majhauria, District-West Champaran.

(ii) For any other relief for which the petitioner is entitled for in the facts and circumstances of the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had earlier participated in the first counseling dated 28.02.2009 but he was not made party and the counseling was cancelled without hearing him. He further submits that the District Teachers Employment Appellate Authority, West Champaran and State Appellate Authority failed to appreciate that the so called counseling dated 12.04.2012 was done without giving any notices to the candidates in which the petitioner was not turned up on the counseling.

impugned order as well as the submission of the learned counsel for the parties, I find that there is no illegality in the order passed by the District Teachers Employment Appellate Authority, West Champaran and State Appellate Authority.

5. Accordingly, this application is dismissed.
