APP for the State.

2. The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Amas P.S. Case No. 52 of 2024 registered for the offence punishable under Sections-302, 120(B) of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Allegedly, the informant's brother namely Chottu Manjhi was murdered by the petitioner. The reason behind the occurrence is said to be illicit relation of the petitioner with wife of the deceased.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has falsely been implicated in this case. The allegation is entirely false and concocted. Had there been any relation between the wife of the deceased and the petitioner, the petitioner should have abstain from participating in the marriage of son of the petitioner which shows that the relation between the petitioner and the deceased was cordial. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also submitted that when the marriage of the petitioner solemnized, the wife of the deceased has not even taken birth. It has further been submitted that there is no evidence in the entire case diary showing the culpability of the petitioner in the alleged occurrence.

5. On the otherhand, Mr. J. N. Thakur, learned counsel appearing for the State has opposed the prayer for bail.
