2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in

No.182 of 2023, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302/342/323/34/120B of the Indian Penal Code.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is completely innocent and has committed no offence. He submits that he is basically working outside the State and on the said date and place of occurrence, he was present at Rajkot and he has annexed a copy of the attendance in the company in which he is working. Counsel for the petitioner submits that there is one criminal case pending against him in which he was convicted and presently on bail by the appellate Court.

5. Learned counsel for the informant opposes the prayer for bail and submits that the petitioner and his family members had killed the informant's father and uncle in the year 2014. In the said case petitioner was also accused. He was convicted and after taking bail the said family in connivance with each other had committed the murder of the main witness of the earlier case, i.e., mother of the informant. He submits that such person may not be granted anticipatory bail.

for regular bail shall be considered without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.
