Heard learned counsels for the parties.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 447, 341, 323, 504, 506, 353, 224, 225 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The prosecution case in brief is that all the F.I.R. named accused persons, including these petitioners, obstructed the police party and got freed the accused persons from police custody and also tore some government papers.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners that petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case.

5. On the other hand, learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners and submitted that there is specific accusation against these petitioners that they objected the police party. It is further submitted that petitioners have also got one criminal antecedent.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, nature of accusation and criminal antecedents of petitioners, the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners is rejected.
