ORAL ORDER

2 08-07-2024 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P for the State.

2. The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in connection with Cyber P.S. Case No. 29 of 2024 dated 14.03.2024 registered for the offences punishable u/s 419, 420 and 170 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 66(c)/ (D) of the I.T. Act.

3. As per the prosecution case, the informant got a call from this number 911243660525 claiming to be from administration. They told the informant that his son was caught in a rape case with his friend and he has to pay Rs. 75,000/- if he wants to save his son otherwise his son's career will be ruined. They gave a PNB bank account number (0713100100006920) to the informant to deposit the amount. The informant followed the instruction and deposited the said amount. It is further alleged that after some time, the informant came to know that it was a cyber fraud.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. The petitioner is not named in the F.I.R. The name of the petitioner was disclosed by the co-accused Raushan Kumar. It is further submitted that the said bank account number and the mobile number do not belong to the petitioner. Similarly situated co-accused has already been granted bail by the co-ordinate bench of this court vide order dated 02.07.2024 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 43280 of 2024. It is further submitted that the petitioner has no concern with the alleged offence. The petitioner has clean antecedent as stated in para 3 of the bail petition. The petitioner is in custody since 18.03.2024.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail petition of the petitioner.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as the period of custody, the petitioner above-named, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Court concerned, Muzaffarpur in connection with Cyber P.S. Case No. 29 of 2024.

7. The application stands allowed.
