ORAL ORDER

3      28-08-2024                      1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, Mr. Santosh Kumar Pandey assisted by learned advocate, Mr. Rakesh Kumar Sharma as well as learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioners seek bail in anticipation of their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 467, 468, 504/34 of the IPC and Section 138 of the N.I. Act in connection with Wazirganj P.S. Case No.42 of 2024.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners at the outset submits that the dispute is purely civil to which a criminal colour has been given and the parties have compromised, as such no useful purpose would be served by sending the petitioners to jail.

4. The learned APP submits that though a submission has been made that petitioners and the informant has compromised the case, but then there is nothing on record to suggests the same, on which the learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioners submit that he has instructions to make submissions on behalf of the petitioners that the dispute has been compromised and a petition to that effect shall also be filed before the learned trial court.

5. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, are directed to be released on anticipatory bail on their furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ist, Gaya in connection with Wazirganj P.S. Case No.42 of 2024, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

6. However, it is made clear that the learned trial court before accepting the bail bonds of the petitioners shall verify from the informant that as to whether the dispute in between the petitioners and the informant has been compromised or not, in the event if the informant disputes the compromise, in that event, the present anticipatory bail order shall not be given effect to.

7. The application stands allowed.
