ORAL ORDER

- 2      07-08-2024      1. Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.
2. This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Khanpur Police Station Case No. 09 of 2024, disclosing offences under Sections 363, 366(A), 34 of the Indian Penal Code.
3. As per the prosecution case, on 09.01.2024, daughter of the informant, aged about sixteen years, had gone to attend her class but did not return till evening. Upon search, the informant came to know that petitioners along with other accused persons kidnapped the victim for the purpose of marriage.

4. Learned Counsel for the petitioners submits that the son of petitioner no. 1 and co-accused of this case namely Md. Shahzad was having a love relationship with the victim girl. From the statement of the girl recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C., it would be evident that the victim girl had gone to Kolkata where Md. Shahzad was working and they have solemnized marriage over there. The petitioners are father, mother and other relatives of the co-accused Md. Shahzad. In her statement, the victim girl has not stated anything against these petitioners. The petitioners have been made accused merely because they happen to be the parents and family members of the co-accused Md. Shahzad.

5. Having regard to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration the statement of the victim girl recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. and the fact that the petitioners are family members of the co-accused, I am inclined to grant the petitioners privilege of anticipatory bail.

6. This application is, accordingly, allowed.

7. Let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the Court below within four weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Ms. Isha Raj, JMFC-cum-Additional Munsif, Samastipur, in connection with Khanpur Police Station Case No. 09 of 2024, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
