3. As per the prosecution case, the petitioner and the co-accused Bhura Paswan are alleged to have committed murder of the informant's husband by cutting his neck when her husband went to the boring of Raghupat Yadav for irrigating his field. Previously they also threatened to kill due to irrigation dispute.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in

It is further submitted that there is sufficient material indicative of the petitioner's involvement in the alleged crime.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as the heinous nature of allegation against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner and the same is rejected in connection with Tillathu P.S.
