CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SANDEEP KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 22-07-2024 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner; learned APP for the State and learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2.

2. In this case, the petitioner is challenging the order by which the discharge application of the petitioner has been rejected.

3. The FIR and the materials during investigation are in support of strong suspicion against the petitioner and strong suspicion is enough to frame charges against the petitioner. The petitioner was seen running from the place of occurrence with a spear.

4. Considering the aforesaid, I am not inclined to interfere in the order rejecting discharge. Accordingly, this application is dismissed.
