ORAL ORDER

2 28-08-2024 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned APP for the State.

2. In this case, the petitioner is seeking regular bail in connection with Patna Gaya Rail P.S. Case No. 20 of 2024, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 414 of the IPC.

3. As per allegation, the informant along with other police personnels was on patrolling duty. Upon seeing the police party, the petitioner started fleeing away but he was apprehended and two mobile sets were recovered from his possession.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has falsely been implicated in this case merely on suspicion. Nothing incriminating article was recovered from his possession. He is under custody since 04.03.2024.

5. On the other hand, learned APP has opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that the petitioner has five criminal antecedent other than the present one and he was caught on the spot and two mobile phones were recovered from his conscious possession.

6. Considering the above-mentioned facts and circumstances and also considering the criminal antecedents of the petitioner, he doesn't deserve the privilege of bail. Accordingly, it is rejected.

7. However, the petitioner, if so advised, may renew his prayer for bail after six months.
