

26.01.2024 in the morning the accused persons including the petitioners were quarreling amongst themselves in an intoxicated condition and when the informant tried to pacify them when it is alleged that the accused persons assaulted him by an iron rod causing injury and even assaulted his son who fell on the ground.

4. The learned counsel submits that from perusal of the allegation as alleged in the FIR, it would manifest that allegation of assault is not specific that as to who assaulted the informant and his son by rod. It is further submitted that the order impugned even record that the injuries are simple in nature but then are on vital part of the body. It is thus submitted that since allegation of assault is not specific and injuries are simple that amply demonstrates that petitioners never had any intention of committing a serious occurrence.

5. The learned APP opposes the anticipatory bail application.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, are directed to be released on anticipatory bail on their furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of

Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned A.C.J.M., Ist, Gaya in connection with Delha P.S. Case No.19 of 2024, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

7. The application stands allowed.
