ORAL ORDER

4 21-11-2024 Heard the parties.

2. The petitioner is in judicial custody in connection with Halai P.S. Case No. 08 of 2024 for the offence under Sections 341, 323, 354-B, 307, 379, 504, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code lodged on 19.03.2024 by the informant, Kamli Devi.

3. In this case on 22.08.2024, the coordinate Bench had called for the injury report relating to the case of the petitioner, which has since been received.

4. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that armed variously, the accused persons abused them and upon objection, assaulted. While allegation against Shivchandra Sahni is of outraging the modesty of the daughter, so far as this petitioner is concerned, he is alleged to have given ‘Garasa’ blow to Sanjeet Sahni, the son of the informant whereafter both were rushed to the hospital where Sanjeet Sahni was admitted in critical condition, this led to the F.I.R.

5. The injury report is on record and according to which there is fracture of occipital bone on the left side with bony fragments protruding inside the cranial cavity.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that she is a lady, has remained in custody for long and as such, deserves bail.

7. Learned APP on the other hand has taken this Court to the injury report to submit that the allegation against the petitioner is fully corroborated by the injury report which shows that the same were grievous in nature and the motive of the accused side was to kill the only son of the informant side for which the lady repeatedly gave 'Garasa' blow to him.

8. Considering the direct allegation that has come against the petitioner, the same is supported by the injury report, this Court does not deem it fit and proper to enlarge her on bail.

9. Accordingly, the bail petition stands rejected.
