CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

2 19-09-2024

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of anticipatory bail apprehending his arrest in connection with Tr. no. 2003 of 2024, arising out of Complaint Case no.
179 of 2024, registered under sections 498A, 323 and 504 of Indian Penal Code.

3. As per the prosecution case, the complainant states that she was married to the petitioner on 14.5.2022 and various articles as given in detail in the complaint were given at the time of marriage. It is further stated that soon after the marriage, the accused persons started to torture and assault her for non-fulfillment of further demand of Rs. 2 lacs and a motorcycle. She was abused, assaulted and forced out of the house in June, 2023 and since then, she has been living with her parents.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case only for the reason that he happens to be the husband of the complainant. The allegations are false and concocted. There is no explanation for the inordinate delay in lodging of the complaint. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

5. The application for anticipatory bail is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the allegation against the petitioner in the complaint, the material on record, the delay in filing of the complaint together with the petitioner not having any criminal antecedent, it is directed that the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks, be released on anticipatory bail in connection with Tr. no. 2003 of 2024 (arising out of Complaint Case no. 179 of 2024) on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Motihari, East Champaran.
