3. As per the prosecution story, the informant is student of Class X, aged about 14 years, and it is alleged that she met the co-accused Priyaranjan Kumar one year back. On 24.11.2023, co-accused Priyaranjan Kumar established physical relations with informant against her will and continue to dos so after blackmailing her. The petitioners are the maternal grandfathers of the co-accused Priyaranjan Kumar where he used to reside.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have been made accused merely on the ground that they happen to be the maternal grandfathers of the co-accused Priyaranjan Kumar with whom the informant was having love relationship and the co-accused established physical relationship with her. Apart from above, there is no serious allegation against the petitioners and the co-accused Priyaranjan Kumar has been granted regular bail by the Bench of this Court in Cr. Misc. No. 65083 of 2024, dated 01.10.2024. He further submits that the victim girl in her statement recorded under Section 164 Criminal Procedure Code has not alleged anything against the petitioners.

5. Having regard to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration the nature of allegation and the statement of the victim girl recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C., I am inclined to grant the petitioners privilege of anticipatory bail.

6. This application is, accordingly, allowed.

7. Let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the Court below within four weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Vaishali at Hajipur, in connection with Hajipur Mahila Police Station Case No. 27 of 2024, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
