payment thereof with its permissible interest with effect from 1.1.2000.”

2. At the outset, the learned counsel for the petitioner fairly submits that the possession of the premises in question has been handed over to the petitioner, however, as far as the rent for the period during which the police outpost was situated at the said premises is concerned, the petitioner be granted liberty to approach the concerned Court, where Title Suit No. 114 of 2011 is pending, in view of the fact that the State authorities are ready to pay the rent, however, they are at a loss to understand as to whom the rent should be paid during the pendency of the title suit.
