3. As per the prosecution case, the police personnel apprehended 13 persons and others fled away from the place of occurrence. The apprehended persons disclosed that the petitioner and the other accused persons are involved in providing loan to the people and also used to cheat them.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. The name of the petitioner has surfaced in this case merely on suspicion. It is further submitted that no incriminating article has been recovered from possession of the petitioner. Learned counsel has further submitted that the petitioner has no concern with the alleged recovery as mentioned in the F.I.R. and he is not the member of any gang or associates of the alleged incident. The co-accused person has already been granted anticipatory bail by this court vide order dated 06.09.2024 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 43348 of 2024. The petitioner has clean antecedent as stated in paragraph no. 3 of the bail petition.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the anticipatory bail petition of the petitioner.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, let the above named petitioner, in the event of his arrest/surrender within a period of six weeks from today, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees twenty thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Sheikhpura in connection with Sheikhopur Sarai P.S. Case No. 36 of 2024, subject to conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, with further condition/s:-

(i). The petitioner is directed to remain physically present before the learned Court below on each and every date, failing which on two consecutive dates without reasonable cause, the bail bond of the petitioner is liable to be cancelled.

(ii). If the petitioner is found involved in similar nature of offence in future, the prosecution will be at liberty to move for cancellation of his bail bond.

7. The application stands allowed.
