Code read with Section 27 of the Arms Act.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has antecedent of three cases and has been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant with an allegation that petitioner along with others came and forcibly took away one of the two tractors apprehended laden with sand.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since petitioner also resides nearby, as such, out of inquisitiveness, he had gone to the place of occurrence to witness that as to what was happening, but he came to be implicated based on his antecedent. It is also submitted that petitioner will not abscond rather will co-operate in the investigation to prove his innocence.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned trial court within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Rajoun P.S. Case No. 330 of 2022 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Cr.P.C.

7. One of the bailors of the petitioner shall be his father, Amrit Yadav.

8. However, it is made clear that in the event if the Investigating Officer of the case files an application before the learned Trial Court bringing to its notice that petitioner despite giving assurance to this Court is not co-operating in the investigation or is not presenting himself as and when required in that event the learned Trial Court shall be at liberty to forthwith cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner.

9. It is further made clear that if the charge sheet is submitted connecting the petitioner with the offence, in that event the present anticipatory bail order shall lose its effect.

10. Let a copy of this order be sent to the concerned P.S. through the learned Trial Court.
