- 2 23-10-2024 1. Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.
2. This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Bhagwanpur PS case no. 166 of 2024, disclosing offences punishable under Section 307 and other allied sections of the Indian Penal Code.
3. The prosecution story, as per the First Information Report, is that on 08.06.2024, petitioner along with others subsequently, on the same day at about 8.30 am, again all the named accused persons including the petitioner came to the house of informant and petitioner assaulted the father of the informant with rod on his head and other accused persons assaulted the informant.

4. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that there is long-standing dispute/ enmity between the parties, inasmuch as both the parties are co-villagers. Learned counsel further submits that counter case has also been lodged by the side of the petitioner bearing Bhagwanpur PS Case No. 160 of 2024. He next submits that the injury caused to the informant's father is simple in nature, as would be evident from the impugned order itself.

5. Regard being had to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration the fact that both parties are co-villagers, there is previous dispute between them, counter case has been lodged by the side of the petitioner against the informant and others and injury caused to the informant's father is simple in nature, I am inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
