2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Belaganj P.S. Case No. 86 of 2024, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 325, 307, 379, 504, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Allegedly on the alleged date of occurrence while panchayati was going on, in the meantime, all the FIR named accused persons came there and started abusing. On protest being made, the accused persons, including the petitioners assaulted the informant and his son by means of lathi, danda, iron rod and bricks.

4. Learned Advocate for the petitioners referring to the FIR firstly contended that there is omnibus nature of allegation against all the FIR named accused persons. The alleged occurrence took place on 03.01.2024 but surprisingly the FIR has been instituted on 06.02.2024, after a delay of more than a month without there being any explanation. It is next contended that though the allegation has been levelled against the accused persons that the son of the informant has sustained some injury but surprisingly no injury report has been placed before the learned court below despite on demand. It is lastly contended that be that as it may, the petitioners bear fair antecedent and they undertake that they will fully cooperate in the proceeding of the court.

5. On the other hand, learned Advocate for the State opposed the bail application.

6. Regard being had to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and considering the delay in lodging of the FIR, coupled with the fair antecedent, let the petitioners abovenamed be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, upon furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gaya in connection with Belaganj P.S. Case No. 86 of 2024, subject to the conditions laid down in Section 438(2) Cr.P.C. with the further condition that one of the bailors shall be the own/close family members of the petitioners.
