CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

- 2 12-11-2024 1. Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.
2. This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Mahindwara Police Station Case No. 17 of 2023, disclosing offences punishable under Sections 379/461/411 of the Indian Penal Code.
3. The prosecution case, as per the First Information Report, is that in the night of 14.07.2023, the informant heard some sound coming out of his shop and when he reached near his shop, he was a pick-up van standing near his shop and also found the lock of his shop broken. When the informant raised alarm, the driver of the pick-up van and two other persons tried to fee away along with the pick-up van, but on chase, the petitioner, along with the villagers, stopped the pick-up van but the driver and two other persons succeeded in fleeing away. He further submits that when he compared the articles present in the pick-up van, he found the articles of his shop.

- 4. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case merely because he happens to be the owner of the pick-van. He further submits that the petitioner was coming to deliver the goods of the informant, but due to dispute of fare, this false case has been lodged by the informant.
- 5. Regards being had to the submissions advanced on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration the fact that the petitioner has criminal antecedents of similar nature of offence, I am not inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail.
- 6. This application is, accordingly, dismissed.
