CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY
ORAL ORDER

2 23-10-2024 Heard Mr. Sunil Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner is in custody in connection with Chandauti P.S. Case No. 229 of 2024 for the offence under Section 392 of the Indian Penal Code lodged on 15.06.2024 by the informant, Asharfi Kumar.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that the accused person booked Tata Indigo for a fare of Rs.3,000/-. Under bonafide belief he started journey along with them from Patna to Gaya. In between, fuel worth Rs.1,200/- was also filled but after mid-night, he was taken out, tied to a tree with hands, feet and mouth choked with clothes. He was also beaten before they took away the vehicle. It was only after an elderly man came that he got free and thereafter the F.I.R.

4. Though the learned counsel for the petitioner tried to impress upon this Court about his innocence, learned APP drew the attention of this Court to paragraph no.3 to show that he has criminal antecedent too.

5. The kind of allegation that has come against the petitioner in course of investigation, no relief can be granted him for the present.

6. The bail application accordingly stands rejected.
