ORAL ORDER

2 20-11-2024 Heard the parties.

2. The main grievance of the petitioner is that the society has rejected the membership application of some persons, but the Appellate Authority i.e. the Assistant Registrar, Co-operative Societies allowed the appeal in utter violation of circulars.

3. On the other hand, learned counsel for State

Election Authority submits that the alternative remedy of revision is available against this order under Section 56 read with Section 48 of the Bihar Co-operative Societies, Act, 1935. He has further submitted that the persons whose appeal have been allowed, are the necessary party but they have not been impleaded. He has also submitted that the Chairman of the PACS cannot file a representation in representative capacity.

4. Be that as it may, since the revisional forum is available alternatively, the petitioner may raise his grievance before the Revisional Authority.

5. With the aforesaid observations, this writ petition stands disposed of.
