ORAL ORDER

- 2 10-12-2024 1. Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners and learned APP for the State.
2. This application, for grant of anticipatory bail, arises out of Jamo Bazar PS case no. 281 of 2024, disclosing offences punishable under Section 126(2) and other allied sections of the B.N.S. Act, 2023.
3. The prosecution story, as per the First Information Report, is that on 17.08.2024, when the informant's son namely Irshad Ali went to his uncle's house to give Rs. 15,000/- then the petitioners along with two unknown persons caught hold of the informant's son and petitioner no. 2 inflicted knife blow on the stomach and chest of informant's son.

4. Learned Counsel for the petitioners submits that both parties are co-villagers and at about 2 pm in the afternoon, when petitioner no. 1 along with his father was going to the market, then the informant's son assaulted the father of petitioner no. 1 and at about 4 pm on the same day, informant's son along with 6-7 persons armed with stick, iron rod and other weapons came to the petitioners' house and started assaulting petitioners and their family members, however no F.I.R. was lodged but due to the minor scuffle between the parties, the present F.I.R. was lodged by the side of the informant on the next day. Referring to Annexure-P/2 i.e. the injury report of the victim Irshad Ali, learned counsel submits that all injuries are simple in nature.

5. Regard being had to the submissions made on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration the nature of allegation and the fact that injuries caused to the victim are simple in nature, I am inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. This application is, accordingly, allowed.

7. Let petitioners, abovenamed, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the Court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten
