ORAL ORDER

3      05-03-2024                      1. Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the State.

2. The accused/petitioner is named in F.I.R. and apprehending his arrest in connection with Mansurchak P.S. Case No. 85/2023 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302, 120B, 341, 342, 201, 323, 504, 506 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The allegation against this petitioner is to commit murder of his own daughter, who is a niece (Bhanji) of informant, Asha Devi alongwith other co-accused persons/family members.

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that petitioner was implicated falsely with present case, as the daughter of petitioner died in natural course out of her ailments/consumption of poison, during the course of her treatment. It is further submitted that informant is not the eye witness of the occurrence and merely on the basis of suspicion as petitioner solemnized his second marriage after the death of his first wife, who was the sister of informant much prior to this occurrence i.e. about 13 years, the present false case was lodged against petitioner, who is father of deceased. It is submitted that police submitted charge-sheet against co-accused, who is none but the wife of this petitioner for the offence under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code for the reason that during the course of investigation it surfaced that the deceased daughter of petitioner committed suicide after consuming poison due to her failed love affairs, as same was not approved by petitioner being father. It is also submitted that from the materials collected during the course of investigation, it cannot be said, prima facie that the act of petitioner was so direct or active, which may compel the deceased as to commit suicide without leaving any other options. It is a case of suicide out of failed love affairs. In support of his submissions, learned counsel relied upon the legal reports of Hon'ble Supreme Court as reported through 2016 SCC onLine SC 1415 the matter of Gurcharan Singh vs. State of Punjab. While concluding the argument, it is submitted that petitioner is a man of clean antecedent.

5. Learned APP appearing for the State opposes the prayer of bail.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances as case, prima facie, appears as to committing suicide out of failed love affairs, coupled with the fact that petitioner is a man of clean antecedent, accordingly, the above named petitioner, in the event of his arrest or surrender before learned trial court within a period of four weeks, is directed to be released on bail furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Begusrai/concerned Court, where the case is pending in connection with Mansurchak P.S.
